The show covers all market sectors: women's ready-to-wear, urban and men's fashion, fashion accessories, shoes, leather goods and bags, and jewellery. WHO'S NEXT is so much more than a trade show. Through its dynamic programme of special exhibitions, talks and catwalk shows, it is also a key source of information on the latest trends. From young designers to established brands, urban labels to artisans, our team has always highlighted beauty and craftsmanship, whatever the product's background or origin. This quest for novelty, innovation and attractiveness that also takes into account the human dimension has helped the show to gain global recognition. At a time when standardisation and globalisation are everywhere, WHO'S NEXT is doing its utmost to respond to the questions, doubts, needs and hopes of the fashion industry.
