FRENCH SENATE BUSINESS DELEGATION ASKS THE GOVERNMENT TO MAKE SHORT TIME WORKING

SCHEME EFFICIENT OVER COVID-19 CRISIS

Paris, Washington DC, 28.03.2020, 20:59 Time

USPA NEWS - Faced with the distress of traders and entrepreneurs, the Senate Business Delegation asks the Government to make the short-time working scheme efficient Mrs. Elisabeth Lamure, President of the Business Delegation of the Senate, alerted Mrs. Muriel Penicaud, Minister of Labor and Mr. Bruno Le Maire, Minister of Economy and Finance, on the distress of traders and entrepreneurs to access to the partial unemployment scheme. Indeed, senators are seized with an influx of requests for intervention from companies very worried about their future and that of their employees. They want to be able to rebound when our country comes out of this crisis. To do this, they must both survive and be able to retain their qualified personnel.

Especially in this situation are food businesses authorized to open but faced with a desertion of customers. Among them are, for example, pastry chefs, confectioners, caterers, who have one or more stores, have seen their activity drop drastically due to the cancellation of all events, including weddings. Take-out catering faces the same problem of practically total absence of customers, who throughout the country stay at home. This question of the eligibility of partial unemployment also concerns the liberal professions. For Ms. Elisabeth Lamure: "It is urgent to widen the system in order to save local shops and all of the professionals concerned. The DIRECTE (regional directorates for business, competition, consumption, work and labor) 'Employment) must soften and harmonize their interpretation of the texts. The same applies to employment and economic and social life in all our territories. " Source: French Senate
